

SYHO in Your Home – Lyrics

The Well Being Song (written at the ABCD Wellbeing Day by Kimberley Moore's songwriting workshop participants )

All these rivers come together
All our currents make us strong
We can make it through any weather
Even though the journey's long.

Every river meets the sea
Flowing between me and you
It just goes to show
There's nothing we can't do.

Tumbling down the waterfalls
Rising up through the babbling brook
We are open like the winter fields
No matter which path we took.

The leaves are flickering in the trees
They wave us good luck on our way
Watch out for the rocks and overcome
'Cause tomorrow...is another day!

*'Cause tomorrow is another day
we'll let this one just trickle away
'Cause tomorrow is another day
We'll float up stream in our own way.*
